PROPHECY

Podners, it shor' is nice to be able to get together again with ya'll. 'Hit hardly seems possible that this here is May 27, 1976. If you will all just sit around this campfire which I done built, I think we can find out just what has happened to all o' us since 1955.

Now thar is Grady Campbell, Wendell Hall, James Ed Hundley, and Sterling Bass who have thet big trading post down at Possum Creek. It sure is a beut and do you know that Elsie Rayburn and Norma Smith do their modeling?

Back up the road a piece is Circle Q Ranch which is owned by none other than Doyle Campbell and Frances Forehan. They have some of the best cow-punchers that you ever seen. Billy Spivey and Paul Everette round up the cattle while Gene Skinner croons to 'em. Ther grub is slung by experts--Bevelyn Killingsworth and Sarah Greer.

You know how ornery Jimmy Ned Collins, Billy Hawkins, Dawsey Hemby, and Jerry Dunnaway used to be. Wal, they got har'd by them perfessional football men and away they went to the city. They made some hit!

Did ya'll see that gang o' young'uns what come in when Louise Spivey Branton, Marie Saunders Thomas, Evelyn Hall Creel, and Sherryl Caraway Metcalf came in? They all live down in the bottom not fer from Possum Creek.

Two of our best loved preachers 'round hyar is Bobby Jackson and Charles Whitehead. Over at Brother Jackson's church, the organ is pedaled by our very own Margie Hodges and that lovely voice of Ernestine Clark's can be heered leadin' the singin'.

It uz no surprise to us when we found out that Nellie Smith jined the circus and was later followed by Jewel Newman. Lamar Jones and Gerald Mitchell wuz the barkers of the show and got these gals thar jobs.

John Wayne Hicks talked Jackie Benefield into trying out fer the job o' orange picker in Florida and thar they have been ever since.

It shor' does me good to see sweet little ole Betty Peacock come on my TV screen. She got Eugene Tindell and Lawrence Harris thar jobs as janitors at Radio City Music Hall.

Did ya'll read that ed'itoral that Horace Baxley writ in his paper on "How To Become Important?" He went right on 'ta tell that Barbara Watson and Larry Toole had reached their goal in life and that wuz 'ta own a farm and a pen full o'pigs.

These are pow'ful good doughnuts that Robbie and Merium brung us from the famous Hall Deli'tessen. And speakin' o' vittles, yew ought'a eat at the Greasy Grill owned by Myernette Register, Joyce Caraway, and Jean Butler.

As we 'spected, Annette Leddon and Shirley Jenkins got more larnin' an' 'er now over at Hickory Hollow whar Edward Woods is coachin' an' Nelson Baxley is principal.

Whut ya think 'bout Kenneth Register, Kenneth Sewell and Durl Smith makin' all thet money on the swimmin' pool they wuz dig'n an' turned out to be an oil well?

Grace Phillips and Jo Anne Baxley have made some of the purtiest dresses what they sell in New York. Their models are Carolyn Peters, Shelby Jean Freeman, and Sarah Russell.

Come to think of it, Rodney Collins is doin' all right too in his ottermobile bizness. Johhny Earl Lassister is one o' his mechanics and Roy Saunders washes his cars.

Thar wuz four of us that took to the air. Jean Brackin, Carolyn McCullough, Flora Nell Singletary, and Loudean Williford er hostesses on big airplanes.

I almost fergot to tell yew that I run a clothes washin' house. 'Hit plum keeps me busy all tha' time.

That just 'bout gets us all. It shor has been good talking to yew. Now if yew will just saddle up, we'll ride down the trail an' plan our next meeting.

CLASSES

CLASS HISTORY

As beginners we entered the elementary school with Miss Elizabeth Davis and Miss Opal Garner as our co-sponsors. On opening day the following were enrolled: James Edward Hundley, Earnestine Clark, Nellie Smith, Carolyn Peters, Kenneth Register, Barbara Watson. Grace Parrish, Evelyn Hall, Lawrence Harris, Doyle Campbell, Dawsey Hemby, Lamar Jones, Gerald Mitchell, and Wendell Hall. Sara Greer joined us in January.

We shall never forget how Mrs. Stephens, one of our second grade teachers, graded our workbooks. If we failed to make a perfect score, we were instructed to rework each lesson. Miss Maude Hughes, as well as Mrs. Stephens, was truly a school mother.

We shall always feel indebted to Mrs. Blennie Underwood, one of our third grade teachers, for the many personal jobs she did for us. We do not have the space to enumerate them here. A few of us still bear scars on our hands which were a result of paddlings given us by Miss Frances Richards for missing words on spelling. Eugene Tindell from Hartford joined our class that year.

Many of us will always carry a mental picture of the cloakroom punishments we received from Mrs. Annie Lois Wiggins when we were fourth graders. Others can remember Mrs. Sybil Sellers who applied the rod--a lick for each time our name was taken. Converting from printing to longhand writing was one of our most difficult task during this year. Betty Peacock joined our class from Malvern, Bevelyn Killingsworth from Panama City, and Shelby Jean Freeman from Burns.

Even as early as the fifth grade, football was one of our major sports. Mrs. Mayme Grant McArthur and Mrs. H B. Richards were our co-sponsors. Mrs. McArthur would always lend an ear to our jokes (we shudder now to think of how silly they must have seemed to her) and would often times bring much laughter to us by offering some personal bit of witticism.

Those who had to be sent to the office for misbehaving will not soon forget Mrs. Bernice Hornsby, one of our sixth grade teachers. Again some of us had the priviledge of working under the supervision of Mrs. Underwood. Jean Brackin joined our class from Wicksburg, Loudean Williford from Malvern, and Sarah Russell from Rehobeth. Sixth grade graduation activities were a joy to be remembered forever.

We felt ill at ease the first year that we entered the high school building; however Miss Claire Covell, who later in the year was replaced by Mrs. Mildred Stanley, and Miss Celeste Foster soon made us feel at home. Mrs. Stanley taught us art. The most outstanding thing we did was that of making boats out of soap. Bonifay furnished us an additional member by the name of Annette Leddon.

When the next year arrived, we realized that we were nearing our goal--soon we would be Senior class members. Miss Norma Foster and Mrs. Flora Dalton were our co-sponsors for the eighth grade. Miss Foster would always lock the door of the room when recess and lunch time came. Mrs. Dalton's lectures in history surprisingly led to our liking the subject. She would always make sure that everyone had at least a fair knowledge of the subject matter before he was given a passing grade. Elsie Rayburn and Gene Skinner joined our class from Malvern.

During our ninth year, some of the luckier girls went to the football banquet with their boyfriends. Mr. Sellers successfully conquered the almost indominatable spirit that some tried to display. Others can remember Mrs. Helen Dalton as a very friendly teacher. The ones who joined our class that year were Jewel Newman from Coffee Springs, and Jackie Benefield and Billy Gene Spivey from Malvern.

Exciting events happened during our tenth grade year with Mr. Waylon Dubose and Mrs. Mary Snell. New members from Fadette were: Flora Nell Singletary, Joyce Carraway, Margie Hodges, JoAnne Baxley, Bobbie Singletary, Myernette Register, Grace Phillips, Shirley Jenkins, Norma Jean Smith, Fannie Smith, Carolyn McCullough, Frances Forehand, Sterling Bass, Larry Toole, Johnny Earl Lassiter, Kenneth Sewell, Buddy Holloway, and Horace Baxley. From Malvern came: Roy Saunders, Edward Woods, Robbie Hall, Louise Branton, Marie Saunders, Merium Hall, Billy Hawkins, Nelson Baxley, and Paul Everett. From Tate came: Jerry Dunnaway, John Wayne Hicks, and Norma Jean Butler. From Gilbertown, Alabama, came Bobby Jackson, and from Hartford came Grady Campbell.

Our Junior Class with Miss Celeste Foster and Mrs. Burnelle Armstrong as co-sponsors entertained the Seniors at an "April Showers" banquet held in the Houston Hotel in Dothan, Alabama.

At last we are Seniors with Mrs. Ida Bell Phinney as our beloved confidante and leader. Early in the year Earnestine Clark was chosen as "Miss Slocomb", and Grace Phillips, Jackie Benefield and Robbie Hall were chosen as cheerleaders. Charles Whitehead joined us from Graceville, Florida, and Rodney Collins from Columbus, Georgia. As we leave these classrooms to go out into the world, our hearts are touched because we know that we shall miss our teachers, sponsors, and many other good friends; however we shall hold close to memories of our association with them.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of nineteen hundred fifty-five, do hereby make and declare this to be our last will and testament, to be read on the 13th day of May and was hereby witnessed by the following officers of the Senior Class.

I, CAROLYN PETERS, will my dark complexion to Betty Purvis.
I, SARAH RUSSELL, leave my algebra book to anyone who wants it.
We, FLORA SINGLETARY and JOYCE CARAWAY, will nothing because we have nothing to dispose of.
I, BOBBY JACKSON, leave a phamplet on "How to Get Out of Class Successfully" to Herman Sorrells.
I, SARAH GREER, leave my ability to speak French to Wallace Chestnut.
I, JEWELL NEWMAN, will my English book to anyone in the Junior Class.
I, SHELBY FREEMAN, will my quiet ways to Bonnie Collins.
We, ELSIE RAYBURN and NORMA SMITH, will our height to June Holloway and Willie Dell Hall.
We, WENDELL HALL and JAMES EDWARD HUNDLEY, leave the Jot'em Down to search for a larger business.
I, NELSON BAXLEY, will my slender physique to Wallace Powell.
I, LAWRENCE HARRIS, will my ability to tell fish tales to Grady Harris.
I, CHARLES WHITEHEAD, leave the echo of my laughter in the halls of S. H. S. to Lloyd Coker.
We, JERRY DUNNAWAY and BILLY HAWKINS, leave the position as co-captains on the football team to anyone who will enjoy it as much as we have.
I, HORACE BAXLEY, leave my medal for playing hookey to Edwin Davis.
I, FRANCES FOREHAN, bequeath my dramatic ability to Joel Wright.
I, DAWSEY HEMBY, will my ability to get A's in English to Morris Holloway.
I, MYERNETTE REGISTER, will my quiet ways to Jane Nell Davidson.
I, GRACE PARRISH, leave my job as prophetess to Louise Justice.
I, MARIE SAUNDERS, leave my ability to stick to one sweetheart at a time to Royce Saunders.
I, PAUL EVERETT, leave the typewriters in Mrs. Paul Dalton's room in poor condition.
I, DOYLE CAMPBELL, will my ability to be the last out of the dressing room to Don Callihan.
I, ROY SAUNDERS, leave school forever--I hope.
I, KENNETH REGISTER, leave my ear plugs to the incoming band bus driver.
I, JIMMY NED COLLINS, will my position as halfback to Joe Spivey.
I, GRACE PHILLIPS, will the responsibility as art editor for the Hi-Lite to anyone who can do a better job than I did.
I, JOHNNY EARL LASSITER, leave my ways to Jerry Adams.
I, BILLY SPIVEY, leave my English book to anyone with more patience than I have.
I, EUGENE TINDELL, will my position as quarterback to someone who can fill it better than I did.
I, MARGIE HODGES, leave the "affairs of Martha" to Margaret Register.
I, LOUDEAN WILLIFORD, will my shorthand to anyone who can learn it.
I, SHELBY GENE SKINNER, leave my curly hair to Keller Hollis.
I, JOHN WAYNE HICKS, will my short hair-cut to Jack Smith.
I, ERNESTINE CLARK, will my smile to Joyce Meadows.
I, JO ANNE BAXLEY, will my job as editor of the Hi-Lite to anyone who wants to get out of P. E.
I, SHIRLEY JENKINS, will my ability to obtain permission to go to town at any time in order to work for the welfare of the class treasury.
I, RODNEY COLLINS, wish to leave my ability to get acquainted with everyone to the next new Senior boy.
I, BETTY PEACOCK, leave nothing because I have nothing to leave.
I, KENNETH SEWELL, will my ways of getting along with Mr. Richards to anyone who needs them.
I, JACKIE BENEFIELD, will my position as captain of the cheerleaders to Jean Spivey.
I, ROBBIE HALL, leave my job as editor of the annual to Emmie Crawford.
I, BEVELYN KILLINGSWORTH, leave my literature book to Wallace Killingsworth.
I, LOUISE BRANTON, leave my ability to get a husband to any Junior girl who is becoming discouraged over her chances of an early marriage.
I, BARBARA WATSON, leave my stubborness to anyone who needs it.
I, CAROLYN McCULLOUGH, will my oratorical ability to Charles Avery.
I, ANNETTE LEDDON, will my candy selling ability to next year's salesmen.
I, DURL SMITH, will my way of getting along with the teachers to Richard Carroll.
I, GERALD MITCHELL, leave my musical talent to Tommy Kelley.
I, MERIUM HALL, will my friendly ways to Martha Joy Battles.
I, LAMAR JONES, leave Sara McDonald. Hands off boys!
I, GRADY CAMPBELL, leave my ways with the women to Doyle Miller.
We, JEAN BRACKIN and LARRY TOOLE, leave the hope that next years' lawyers have more co-operation in collecting and drawing up their respective wills of those who call themselves "seniors".

Sadie,
I haven't known you very long, but I enjoyed it.
Always stay the same sweet likeable person you are now.
Good luck next year and throughout life — I'll miss you.
Love Always,
Grace Phillips

Best of Luck, May you always receive the most from life. I have enjoyed it even to our disagreements. Hope you and Wizzy the best of Luck, your luck has already begun to be with him. He is a good boy you better keep him.
Lawrence Jarvis

The best of luck to you throughout the rest of your life.
Dawsey Hendley

Sara: you are a very nice and sweet. stay that way and you will go far in life
I hope you will always have what you want and never want for nothing
Love
May the best of everything come your way thruout life.
